

EILAN DOLL

Crazy Kashta

A card game for desert trips and campfire nights

Free sample — first 3 cards

How to play

1. 3 or more players — solo or in teams, all ages.
2. Sort the cards into 5 piles by the colour of the back.
3. Take turns: pick a pile, draw a card, read it out loud.
4. Points are on every card: Talk 1 · Challenge 2 · Riddle 2 · Round 3.
5. Win: first to 20 points, or the highest score when the tea runs out.

> Safety first: any moving around happens at least 5 steps from the fire, and any card that feels uncomfortable can be skipped with no penalty. "Host" = whoever reads the card.

Fire Challenge
Do it; the group judges. Pass = 2 points.

Campfire Talk
An honest answer = 1 point. There's no wrong answer.

Desert Riddle
The host reads it; the first right answer gets 2 points.

Group Round
Everyone plays; the winner gets 3 points.

Joker
A power card: keep it or use it now.

Fire Challenge

2 points #1

Do an angry camel's voice for 5 seconds. The group scores it out of 10.
